

Fiskerikajen has a passion for low impact fishing and the uncompromising pursuit for the highest quality.

We know our place in the food system and recognize our responsibility to contribute to a more sustainable use of the ocean's resources.

We are looking for a site manager to tie together our business, working closely with our HQ, Fiskerikajen in Copenhagen. Main focus will be managing the day to day business in our production site and sales office. This role will be key for our expansion into the German market and will be partially responsible for our economic results, in close collaboration with our Copenhagen office.

We are looking for someone with an understanding for the Berlin gastronomic scene and, of course, what it's all about for us: seafood!

We welcome young talent, if you are hungry to learn and eager to grow together with our developing business, please don't hesitate to apply. Fiskerikajen is a thriving business from Denmark looking to expand - with Berlin being just the first step, so there's massive potential for personal development and career options.

Developing stages, together with our company in Copenhagen:

- Education in Copenhagen where you will gain an in-depth understanding for our business and values
- making sure all legal permits are in place in Berlin for us to start production
- Setting up office (coordinating installations / hardware)
- Interviewing production personnel, setting your future team.

After launch:

- Back end office and presence at Berlin headquarters
- Developing purchase plans with our in-house sales team and purchase team in CPH
- Developing app offers with sales and purchase
- Set production schedules
- Planning distribution
- Budgeting in coordination with our CPH office

Presence at office: 5:00am - 1:00pm. (Maybe 6:00-2:00, depending on deliveries and production.)

Please send your CV and a few words about who you are and why you are interested in this role to: ar@annsophieraemisch.com
