WORK EXPERIENCE IN HOTEL, SERVICE & HOSPITALITY

Service/Restaurant/Catering | Kitchen/Food-prep | Reception | Janitor

REQUIREMENTS

You should be a well-communicating team player, who enjoys dealing with people in a service-oriented manner and be able to work independently. In addition, you should be fluent in English (German is a big plus but not necessary!) as a foreign language in order to be able to communicate with the responsible as well as guests. If you are also motivated, flexible, open-minded and ideally already have gained some experience in hotel/service/hospitality, then we would be more than happy to welcome you to our team!

WE OFFER

- Free board and lodging during your period of employment at Hotel Laponia (allergies, food diets must be announced before)
- Appropriate staff clothing on loan for working hours
- Free arrival and return flights within Europe (cheapest option available)
- Lots of interesting insights and unique behind the scenes impressions of one of the most exotic travel destinations within Europe as well as our hotel resort
- Team building adventures and possibilities to spend your free time self-organized
- An unforgettable time in the winter wonderland of Swedish Lapland!

ABOUT US

For our young and international team, motivation and fun at work come first, same as a professional and positive work attitude. Together with several suppliers on site, we want to create the best possible travel experience for our customers from all over the world. Seeing ourselves as a big family, we stand up for each other, support each other and are prepared to put in the odd extra hour together for the greater good. This is our way to guarantee our guests a unique and unforgettable stay. Let's create memories for a lifetime!

HOW TO GET IN TOUCH

We are looking forward to receiving your highly motivated application (cover letter, curriculum vitae - with photo if possible, earlier working experiences, etc.). Please also mark out the earliest possible starting date as well as the planned duration of your stay with us and send everything to the following e-mail address: event@laponiaresort.se. The closing date for applications is 15.09.2024. We will contact you asap after that and let you know if you are on board. It might also be possible that we ask for a short job interview with you online.

See you soon in beautiful Swedish Lapland!
